Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

12/15

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

C. "Attorney" has reviewed with "Client" his/her options to file under Chapter 7, Chapter 11 and Chapter 13 of Title 11 of the United States Code and "Client" has elected to proceed under Chapter 7. "Client" is aware that if he/she proceeds with a Chapter 7 then he/she will be required to forfeit any and all property owned in full or in part by "Client" other than those exemptions permitted by statute and in most instances the amount of property entitled to those exemptions is minimal. The property that could be forfeited includes, but is not limited to real estate, cash, bank accounts, household goods and furnishings, appliances, artwork, collections, sports equipment, tools, jewelry, income tax refunds, vehicles or anything else of value or potential value.

D. "Client" acknowledges that he/she has read both front and back of this agreement and "Attorney" has answered any questions that "Client" may have had about its content.

E. "Client" acknowledges receipt of a copy of this agreement at the time of its execution.

F. It is the obligation of "Client" to supply "Attorney" with a neat, legible and complete list of all creditors of "Client" and for each creditor include their complete name, address, account number and balance owed; also, if that account was referred to a collection agency or lawyer then also include the name, address and account number of the collection agency or lawyer.

G. "Client" understands that "Attorney's" obligation to represent "Client" will end no later than upon the entry of the Order of Discharge in Bankruptcy and "Client" will be responsible for payment of additional fees at the rate of two hundred dollars ($200.00) per hour for any service that might be requested after the entry of the Order of Discharge including but not limited to telephone advice, file retrieval, providing copies of any file related documents and issues concerning credit bureau reports, obtaining credit or other forms of credit repair.

H. "Client" hereby warrants and covenants that he/she has truthfully and fully disclosed to "Attorney" all known or suspected information requested by any aspect of the entire Bankruptcy Petition and that it is the responsibility of "Client" to be certain that this information is all accurately displayed in the actual Bankruptcy Petition at the time "Client" affixes his/her signature(s) thereto.
